what we're obsessed with this week

1 ICE PICK

Indulge and tantalise your senses with Mövenpick's latest gourmet naughty little pleasure – Cognac VSOP icecream. The cognac used is from one of the long-established family houses at the heart of the French Charentes region Maxime Trijol. Founded in 1859, the cognac is double-distilled then generously aged in oak. The smooth Swiss icecream is infused with the spirit, then punctuated with caramelised Granny Smith apple pieces also marinated in the cognac. There are no artificial additives or colours. Available from Mövenpick parlours at Sanctuary Cove and Biggera Waters.

3 HAIR RAISING

We can't say big hair is back but volume has certainly never been out and one of the best ways to achieve it is with the recent winner of Best Hair Volumiser during the Australian Beauty Awards – the David Babaii for WildAid Amplifying Whipped Mousse which gives hair fabulous body without the dreaded sticky feel. The David Babaii for WildAid range is eco-friendly and cruelty-free with 10 per cent of profits going to global conservation organisation, WildAid (www.wildaid.org). Order online at www.adorebeauty.com.au, or for stockists go to www.db4wildaid.com.au or call 1300 387 204.

2 CAPTURING MEMORIES

For a unique keepsake, Smallprint has introduced the original range of Fingerprint Jewellery – beautiful pieces of handcrafted jewellery which capture your child's fingerprint forever. Precious metal clay is rolled out and shaped and your child's finger is gently pressed in place to create the fingerprint. Each piece is finished with a solid silver setting. The jewellery is available in a range of styles including cufflinks, key rings, dog tags, pendants, phone charms and Christmas decorations. Prices start at $70. Visit www.smallp.com.au

5 SNAP TO IT

What's a party without the photos to remember it by? Funky Foto Booths is the brainchild of Gold Coast mother and son Susie and Cam Christie. The pair has taken the latest Hollywood party trend (the photo-booth) and introduced it to Queensland weddings, parties, corporate events and celebrations. The booths create an instant photo album for the host and a party gift for guests. For more information call 0424 133 403, email party@funkyfotobooths.com or log on to www.funkyfotobooths.com

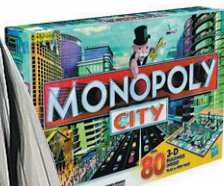

4 FUN AND GAMES

Escape to paradise on Wuhu Island with the second instalment of Wii Sports – Wii Sports Resort, available from Thursday. The beach-themed Wii Sports Resort takes the fun and intuitive controls of the original game to the next level with a new set of entertaining and physically immersive activities. Players can cruise on a water scooter, duel with swords, toss Frisbee to a cute Mii-like dog and more. Play it for $99.95.

6 THE BIG CHEESE

Learn all there is to know about cheese making at Palazzo Versace, Main Beach, during a series of classes held in conjunction with Australia's only organic sheep's milk cheese maker, Grandveve Cheese, this Wednesday and Thursday. Learn how to make two to three different types of cheeses, ranging from sharp, hard types to smooth, soft varieties, as well as how the various tastes complement different wines. Each class costs $100 per person and bookings can be made on 5509 8000.

7 YE OLDE WORLDE

Elegance and charming old-world French style make up the latest range of fine furniture from Domo. This gorgeous writing table, the Grange Scriban Desk, might be $9945 but isn't it worth it? Its graceful black lines are set off by hot pink shelving melding the old with the new in a fusion of chic colour and cultured courtliness. For stockists call (03) 8803 8870.

8 IT'S ALL ABOVE BOARD

One of the world's best-loved boardgames for more than 70 years, Monopoly has gone 3D. Property developers and real estate tycoons will have to rethink their strategies to master Monopoly City's high-rise developments. Develop residential and industrial developments while you devalue other players' cities by erecting hazardous power plants, prisons and even unleashing natural disasters. Nasty. Graffiti will cost you $50,000 to have removed while you'll pay a $500,000 congestion charge if you pick up the wrong card. Monopoly City is $59.95. For stockists call 1300 138 697.

9 GLAMAZON

The golden age of Hollywood came alive when the autumn/winter collection of Jean-Paul Gaultier was modelled at the Paris Fashion Week Haute Couture show. As this creation shows it was all about glamour and elegance, flowing lines and incredible style straight from the 1950s silver screen.

10 GO ON, HANG IT

Here's one for the girls. The Handbag Butler is a chic, foldable hanger that can be attached to a table top to keep your handbag out of harm's way. With 25 different styles across three elegant ranges, there is a Handbag Butler to suit every handbag, outfit or occasion. Best of all the Butler can hold up to 5kg, meaning even your heaviest tote will be secure. It also comes in a gorgeous little mini purse for easy handbag storage. For stockists or to purchase online, visit www.handbagbutler.com.au
